THE ALUMNI REGISTER

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

1328 Chestnut Street
Philadelphia, Pa.

12 mo., 14, 1917.

Sir Robert Falconer,
University of Toronto,
Toronto, Canada.

My dear Sir:

The Provost has informed me that you are to deliver the address on University day, February 22, 1918, and I write to express the hope that you can let me have a copy of it for the graduate magazine of the University as soon as it has been prepared. Of course, it would not appear in our magazine until the first of March, but it takes a long while to get the magazine through the press, so I am always most anxious to get the manuscript as far ahead of the time of publication as I can.

I am taking the liberty of sending you, under a separate cover, a copy of "George Washington ~~in~~ and the University of Pennsylvania", which I hope may be of some interest to you at this time.

Yours very truly,

H. M. Lippincott

Editor.

Mr. H. M. Lippincott,

Editor, Alumni Register,

1328 Chestnut Street,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Mr. Lippincott:

I am now putting together some ideas for the address which the Provost has kindly asked me to deliver on University Day, February 22. As soon as I have it prepared I shall be glad to let you have a copy, though I am afraid that I can hardly get it ready until perhaps the end of the first week of February. Would that be too late for you ?

Yours sincerely,

President.

Dear Mr. Lippincott:

I am sending you herewith, as you requested, copy of my address entitled "A Distinctive Feature of the English-speaking University Suggested by George Washington", to be delivered at the University of Pennsylvania on February 22nd.

Yours sincerely,

President.

Mr. R. V. Liopincott,

Editor, "Alumni Register",

University of Pennsylvania.

Dear Sir:

Sir Robert Falconer has asked me to ask you to be good enough to make a change on page 6 of his manuscript, as follows:

Eight lines from the botton to run " auspicious birthday of the father of your country who possessed so".

Yours sincerely,

President's Secretary.
